CORPUS CHRISTI SOCIETY...

MISS JEANETTE GUNST, Society Editor, Phone 285.

THE HELPFUL DON'T.

I remember, I remember.
The house where I was born.
The little window where the sun
Came creeping in at noon.
To watch the world go by.
The window where I saw
The world's strange and wild
A tale is waiting for you.

These were the first childhood's days--
From the window, great and small.
Each time I caught the breeze from
That room I caught a warning call.
To build, to build, to build and wait.
To build, to build, to build and wait.
But know just what I wished to do
When somebody called "Wait!"

I remember, I remember.
When I remember to be old.
A lot of people called "Wait!"
But all for no good.
The world was waiting for me.
The world was waiting for me.
If they had looked the window open
Or caught a glimpse of me
I might have been a star.

SALISBURY'S

Wild Animal Life in America

In Seven Reels

A Graphic Picture Visualization of American Fin, Fur and Feathers

Some of the Things You See

The capture of ferocious California Lions, Bears and Lynx, to accomplish which their captors often risked their lives.

Life of trout from egg to mature fish, together with methods used in spawning and hatching at world's greatest hatchery.

Wonderful pictures of bird life in North America.
Mallard Duck is shown from egg to swimming stage, as well as the Heron, Cormorant, Buzzard, Wild Goose, Wilson Snipe, Eagle, Coot; also the bird of mystery, the Pelican, in its home in the great Pelican rookeries of America.

For the lovers of good dogs, a reel is devoted to the quail and pheasant shooting over the champion pointers of the west.

Many beautiful spots of nature for years tucked away from the eyes of man are shown in all their wonderful pictures. Magnificent waterfalls; silent snow clad peaks and beautiful forests and streams have been brought thousands of miles to your very door.

So realistic are these pictures that the varied aroma of the woods, the tang of the camp-fire smoke and the resinous smell of the Northern forest seem to be in your very nostrils.
